The latest challenge to border management in the EU has come from the coronavirus, as member states endeavor to close their homeland spaces to almost all outsiders. Will borders return to their pre-corona status or will they remain relatively closed in the coming years, a policy which some governments are eager to pursue? These issues and more will be addressed by four leading international border scholars.

Greetings:

Dr. Maya Sion Tzidkiyahu, Co-President, Israeli Association for the Study of European Integration (IASEI), European Forum, Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Prof. David Newman, Ben-Gurion University, Israel
